

The Graduate Group in Education Research Seminars - Fall 2019

Mondays 12:10-1pm
School of Education Building, Room 174

Oct 7	Marcela Cuellar, Assistant Professor, School of Education Parsing the Purposes of Higher Education: Perspectives from First-Generation and Continuing Generation Students
Oct 14	Kerry Enright, Associate Professor, School of Education, with the Integrating Literacies Research Team The Visible and Invisible Work of Latinx Youth: Language, Identity, and Ability
Oct 21	No Seminar
Oct 28	Rebekka Andersen, Associate Professor, University Writing Program The Many Forces Shaping Today and Some Implications for Education in Professional and Technical Communication
Nov 4	Danny C. Martinez, Associate Professor, and Javier Rojo, PhD Student, School of Education Slap Time!: Leveraging the Everyday Language of Non-dominant Youth in Classrooms
Nov 11	VETERAN'S DAY HOLIDAY
Nov 18	No Seminar
Nov 25	Sagit Betser, Senior Manager, School Community Partnerships Program, Bay Area Discovery Museum Under Construction: Identity Development in a Girls-only Make program
Dec 2	Aubyn Stahmer, Associate Professor, Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences The Impact of Implementation Climate and Leadership on the Use of Autism Practices in Schools